Dear Parent/Carer,

OPEN MEETING FOR PARENTS/CARERS

Thursday 25th September 2014, 7.00pm to 8.00pm

I write at the start of this new school year to inform you of the good news here at St Illtyd's.

The Key Stage 4 results this summer are very pleasing and have brought much satisfaction and joy to students and teachers alike. Overall, the results show a marked improvement on recent years and are, in fact, the best the school has ever achieved. This is a credit to the commitment and hard work of our students and staff as well as the support provided at home by parents and carers, truly a team effort.

This follows on from very pleasing results at Key Stage 3 which puts St Illtyd's ahead of many comparable schools.

The new uniform looks fabulous. The way our students are dressed has contributed to an improved atmosphere of productive learning which is now evident across the whole school. We are awaiting a further delivery of uniform from the supplier and when this has been received spare items of uniform will be available for purchase.

There will be an Open Meeting for parents and carers at the school on the date outlined above. The purpose of the meeting is two fold:

1. For me and other staff to outline the journey the school is on and to explain our plans for the future, and
2. For parents to raise any questions or concerns that they have in an open forum. Related to this, I would encourage parents to consider joining our Parents' Forum. This is a small band of committed parents who continue to make an important contribution to the development of the school (more details will be given at the meeting).

We all know that success at school depends on a partnership between home and school. This meeting is an opportunity for you to have a direct influence on the progress of your child and I would encourage you to attend.

I look forward to meeting you.

Yours sincerely

Mike Clinch
