"Together in Christ, we make a difference"

At St Illtyd's we expect everyone to be:

Polite, Proud and Prepared

Attendance	Punctuality	Uniform	Positive Behaviour
We expect every pupil and parent to aim for 100% attendance.	Always be on time for school.	Correct uniform at all times.	Speak to ALL members of our community with respect.
The minimum acceptable level is 97% (30 lessons missed by July).	Arrive before 8.20am.	All black footwear at all times. No hoodies or denim coats.	Follow all instructions first time.
Ring in immediately if your child is absent.	Walk to class on the first warning bell at 8.25am.	Equipment	Do your work and allow others to do likewise.
Holidays are not authorised in term time.	Lesson 1 starts at 8.30am.	Always have a bag and a school planner.	Classrooms and corridors are food and drink free.
Medical notes are required for all serious illnesses to ensure absence is not unauthorised.	Arrive on time for all lessons.	Always have stationery and appropriate extra equipment e.g. calculator.	Use of mobile phones and other electronic devices will not be tolerated.
Attendance is the first item on a reference for college or employment.	Punctuality is the second item on a reference for college or employment.	Always have a full PE kit even if injured. The PE teacher will determine the level of participation based on the note provided.
